

The test of the Browning gun. Allied officers, French, British and American, are looking it over.

© Paul Thompson

Poster drawn by Neysa McMein for the Military Naval Meet and Grand Ball, to be held this month in Madison Square Garden. The proceeds will go to help maintain the women's overseas hospitals, U. S. A., a unit of which has already sailed.

Here's how the American troops will go "over the top" with the light Browning machine gun, said to be the most effective weapon of its kind. It may be fired from the hip as well as from the shoulder.

© Paul Thompson

"The Copperhead"

Captain Hardy (Albert Phillips) resents the Copperhead's (Lionel Barrymore) remark about the President.

White Studio

Doris Rankin, who has the difficult task of playing the Copperhead's wife and granddaughter both.

J. E. Purdy

The Copperhead — a Civil War pacifist.

White

Lionel Barrymore, who returned from the movies triumphantly in "Peter Ibbetson," does the finest work of his career as the Copperhead.

J. E. Purdy

Milt Shanks, accused by his friends and neighbors of having been a Copperhead, breaks the silence of forty years and produces a letter from President Lincoln complimenting him upon his Secret Service work.

White