★ ★ THE FIELD OF HONOR ★ ★

AMERICANS WHO HAVE GIVEN THEIR LIVES IN THE GREAT WAR

Seaman Arthur S. Egbert, U.S. S. President Lincoln, Graniteville, S. I. Killed on torpedoed transport.

Private John J. Wallace, 306th F. A., Brooklyn. Killed in accident.

Private Samuel H. Thayer, U. S. M. C., Bellevue, Pa. Killed in action.

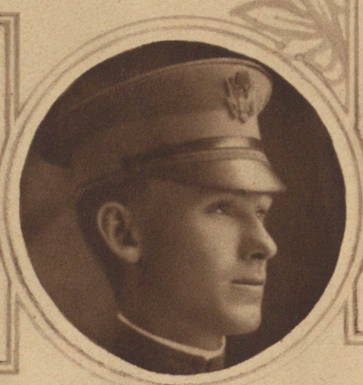
Private Alexander J. Roth, 18th Inf., New York. Killed in action.

Private Charles W. Bowen, 107th Inf., Brooklyn. Drowned in France.

Seaman Charles F. Gans, U. S. S. Alcedo, Jamaica, L. I. Killed when boat was torpedoed.

Corporal Carl J. Lechner, 168th Inf., Cedar Falls, Iowa. Died in France.

Private John W. Lafferty, 16th Engineers, Ridgewood, N. J. Killed in action.



Lieutenant Hamlet P. Jones, 1st Engineers, Kaufman, Tex. Killed in action.

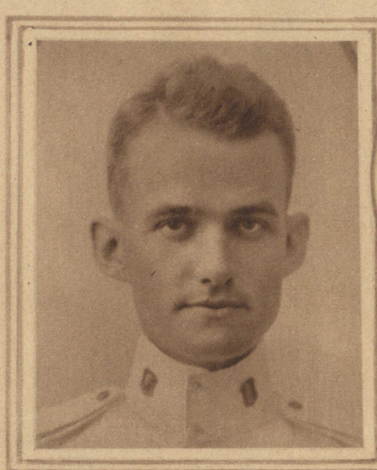
Captain Jewett Williams, 326th Inf., Athens, Ga. Killed in action.

Lieutenant Louis E. Davis, U. S. A. C., Bloomington, Ill. Killed in action.

Private James L. Simpson, 502d Engineers, Canandaigua, N. Y. Died in France.

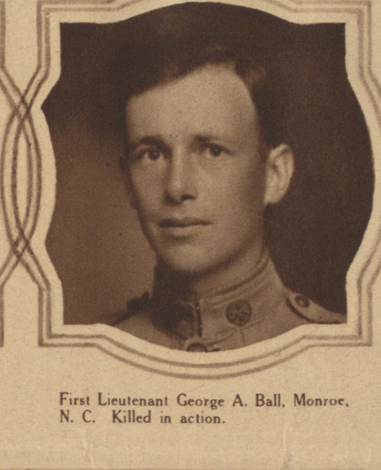
Private Joseph H. Rugh, Emlenton, Penn. Died in France.

Lieutenant Harry C. Colborn, Indianapolis, Ind. Killed in airplane accident in France.



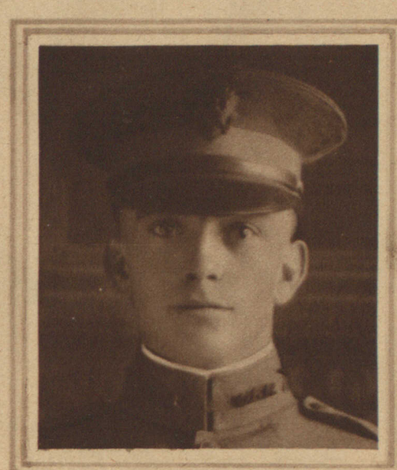
First Lieutenant Albert H. Cowart, U. S. A. C., Ensley, Ala. Killed in airplane accident.

Lieutenant Lynn Harriman, Monument, Col. Killed in action.

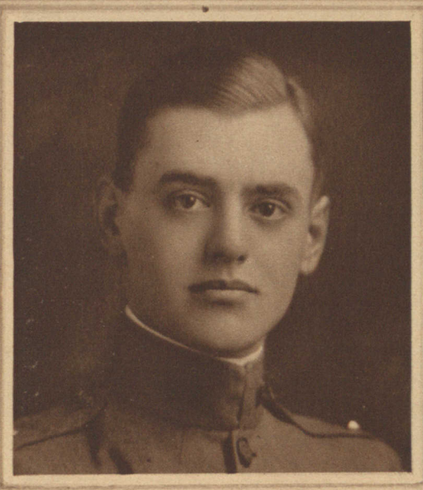


First Lieutenant George A. Ball, Monroe, N. C. Killed in action.

Lieutenant Paul W. Derrickson, 28th Inf., Norfolk, Va. Killed in action.



Lieutenant T. H. Watson, Raleigh, N. C. Killed in action.



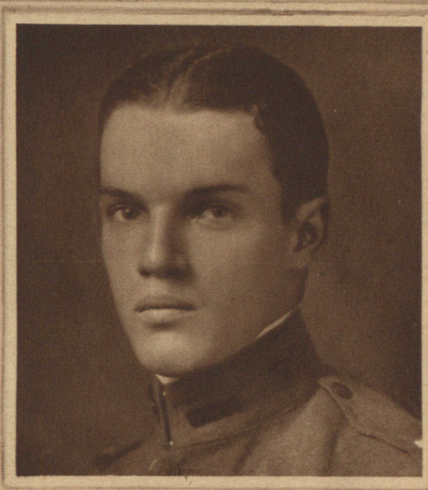
Lieutenant James Palache, 18th Inf., Hartford, Conn. Killed in action.

Lieutenant Wilmer Bodensteb, 28th Inf., Yonkers, N. Y. Killed in action.

First Lieutenant James B. Scarr, 30th Inf., Hasbrouck Heights, N. J. Killed in action.

Lieutenant Ebenezer Bull, Fair Haven, Vt. Died on board U. S. S. Kroonland

First Lieutenant Clayton C. Ingersoll, 27th Aero Squadron, Rockford, Ill. Killed in airplane accident.



Lieutenant George Haydock, 28th Inf., Milton, Mass. Killed in action.

Lieutenant Hammitt K. Elliott, Hadden Heights, N. J. Killed in airplane accident.

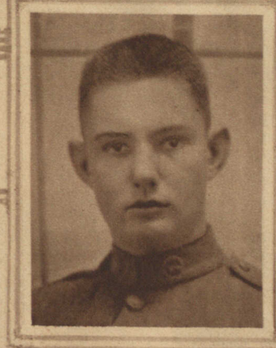
Private Charles H. Webberson, U. S. M. C., Huntington, N. Y. Killed in action.

Private Nils Oscar Anderson, 305th Inf., Brooklyn. Killed in action.

Private William H. Hornby, 1st Regt., Engineers, Fall River, Mass. Died of wounds.

Sergeant William H. Cartland, 7th F. A., Wakefield, Mass. Killed in action.

Army Field Clerk Ben F. Tinsley, Salem, Va. Died in France.



Private William O. Douglas, 150th Field Artillery, Attica, Ind. Died in France.

Private John Marrons, 305th Inf., Roslyn, N. Y. Killed in action.

Private James H. McKenzie, U. S. M. C., Brooklyn. Killed in action.

Private Lester W. Chase, 103d Inf., Derry, N. H. Died of wounds.

Private Jerome Arthur Bierce, U. S. M. C., Spirit Lake, Idaho. Killed in action.

Corporal Joseph J. Fitzgerald, 108th Inf., New York. Killed in accident.

Private Floyd H. Symonds, 23d Inf., Woodhull, N. Y. Killed in action.

Private Robert B. Decatur, U. S. M. C., Plainville, Ohio. Killed in action.

Private Claude Baken, 168th Inf., Mason City, Iowa. Killed in action.