PROMINENT FIGURES IN THE HORSE SHOW

Opening To-morrow for the War Fund Campaign

Mrs. Arthur Iselin, chairman of the committee.

Miss Eleanora Sears, "most notable sportswoman in America."

Mrs. David Wagstaff, member of the committee.

Judge Moore driving Medea and Mona. Remarkable action in a remarkable action picture.

Miss Lida Fleitmann—among the entrants.

Mrs. W. H. Hanley on Driftwood Blaze, many times a winner.

Mrs. Arthur Scott Burden, member of the committee.

Miss "Becky" Lanier taking a jump at the recent Westchester Show.

FIRST PICTURE IN AMERICA OF A BOMBED RHINE TOWN

A reprisal hit on Darmstadt, in the Rhine Valley—The Allies resorted to this grim vengeance only when convinced that nothing would impress Germany but the gospel of "An eye for an eye."