

A crowded moment in "The Crowded Hour," with Jane Cowl the centre of interest, and also Franklyn Ardell, Georges Flateau and Henry Stephenson. Selywn Theatre.

Edmond T. Quinn's stately figure of Edwin Booth, in the character of Hamlet, recently unveiled before the Players Club.

Mrs. Charlie Chaplin in bridal gown—when she was still Mildred Harris and garbed for "Borrowed Clothes."

"Tea for Three," but only two present on this interesting occasion—Frederick Perry and Margaret Lawrence. Maxine Elliott Theatre.

Virginia Fox Brookes in a striking pose. She strikes many more of them in "Sinbad," with Al Jolson. Winter Garden.

A distinguished artist in a great play—John Barrymore in his vivid portrayal of the salvaged human wreck in Tolstoy's "Redemption," with Mona Hungerford. Plymouth Theatre.
