

CHRISTMAS SUGGESTIONS

from Ovington's
The GIFT SHOP of FIFTH AVENUE

THIS page is only a glimpse of what you will find to-morrow at Ovington's, where everything is ready to help you make this Peace Christmas the biggest Christmas ever.

You have always considered Ovington's a fine old house for China and Glassware and art goods. Its reputation was founded on that seventy years ago. And to-day you will find the excellence and abundance of these stocks greater than any in the city. One of our four floors is entirely devoted to China; another to Glassware.

But more than that, you have considered this a house of originality in gifts. There is always an idea behind a gift from Ovington's.

And now we are offering holiday suggestions at price concessions not precedent in our history. The Sheffield illustrated here, for example, is literally 25% to 50% below the usual prices. Throughout the values are amazing—and scores of others await your selection.

Check off your Christmas list with this page before you. Tomorrow, come in and get the gifts themselves or send your order by mail. Whether you come or write, you will receive prompt attention.
