CLAROLA

"THE OIL SUPREME" FOR THE SALAD

It's All in the Dressing

whether the salad tastes good or not—yes, and it's all in the oil whether the dressing is right. There is no doubt where CLAROLA is used—a pure, piquant, palatable oil made from the choicest peanuts—you'll find it a delightful surprise, either in the French Dressing or Mayonnaise. Try it.

For all cooking purposes—CLAROLA is most economical and satisfactory—1/4 to 1/2 less than butter or lard is required. Especially desirable in frying—withstands the most intense heat.

Don't ask for "peanut oil," ask for CLAROLA—a favorite in the leading hotels, restaurants, clubs and dining cars.

HOTEL BELLECLAIRE

NEW YORK

Broadway at 77th St.

Subway at 79th St.

Only a few minutes from the Shopping and Theatrical District.

Everybody agrees that one of the chief attractions of a well-appointed house is the way the table in the dining room is set.

If it is covered with a fine tablecloth and the silverware and dishes look their part, then the lady of the house is immediately rated a good housekeeper. The Belleclaire house-keeping force pays a great deal of attention to table linen—"Setting right" and "the dining room tables."

The best is none too good for Belleclaire guests, but the cost of good table linen at the moment is fierce. We used to be able to buy 12 table cloths, good ones, for $9.50; now we pay as much as $3.60 for one, but as fine table linen is a part of Belleclaire Service, we must buy it and we do.

However, these extra costs are not tacked on to our charges to guests, because we are constantly doing a larger business and we are satisfied with the net profit that we have always made on our gross business.

We are trying to play fair with our patrons.
